1st Sunday of LENT Year C - March 9, 2025

CALLED TO FIDELITY
LIKE CHRIST

We are back in the season of Lent, the time when traditionally, we are expected to cut back on a whole lot of things, to step back as it were, so as to foster the threefold practice of "prayer, fasting and almsgiving." All three are not supposed to be engaged in for their own sakes, but for God's.

Giving up certain things is a lot more real than we thought! For some, it is not the giving up of little things that counts as difficult. That which really poses as a big obstacle for many of us is the bigger issue of having to give up a lifestyle that fuels that never-ending process of having to give up an infinite variety of little things. People give up stuff every day. The question, though, remains unanswered, or simply glossed over ... For what? For whom? Why so?

PURE JOKES

"Yeah, but I'd like to be led into temptation just once, to see how I'd do."

Let the readings help us understand the whys and the wherefores of having to do "prayer, penance and almsgiving." The first reading is a reminder of God's faithfulness to His people. Paul's letter to the Romans confirms the same idea of a faithful God who deserves a confession of faith on our part. The Gospel glowingly presents the fidelity of Jesus who was tempted thrice in the wilderness. Fidelity on three counts... This leads us to the bigger picture that makes giving up anything worth all the effort. This fidelity, both on the part of God, and on the part of God's people stands behind meaningful renunciation.

2nd Reading Rom 10: 8-13

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans
 Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask for his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. The Word of the Lord!

Verse before the Gospel

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!
 No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory!

Gospel Luke 4: 1-13

A proclamation from the holy Gospel according to Luke Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.' Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says: You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.' Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God', he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says: He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you, and again: They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.' But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said: You must not put the Lord your God to the test.' Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time. The Gospel of the Lord!

1st Readings—Deut 26:4-10

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy
 Moses said to the people: 'The priest shall take the panner from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement: "My father was a wandering Aramaean. He went down into Egypt to find refuge there, few in numbers; but there he became a nation, great, mighty, and strong. The Egyptians ill-treated us, they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us. But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers. The Lord heard our voice and saw our misery, our toil and our oppression; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. He brought us here and gave us this land, a land where milk and honey flow. Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, Lord, have given me." You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.' The Word of the Lord!

Responsorial Psalm

Resp: Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!' R
2. Upon you no evil shall fall, no plague approach where you dwell. For you has he commanded his angels, to keep you in all your ways. R
3. They shall bear you upon their hands lest you strike your foot against a stone. On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon. R
4. His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name. When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.' I will save him in distress and give him glory. R

The Jubilee Prayer
 Father in heaven,
 may the faith you have given us
 in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
 May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
 a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
 May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
 To you our God, eternally blessed,
 be glory and praise for ever.
 Amen
